Taste and savour the authentic flavours of Mexico

Fiesta Mexicana Restaurant, which opened in early 2011, brings the authentic taste of the Mexican kitchen to Kamloops.

After working in kitchens from Guadalajara to Virginia, Minnesota, Vancouver and finally Kamloops, executive Chef Alberto Vazquez saw an opportunity to introduce his vision of Mexican cuisine to Western Canada.

Teaming up with local restaurateur Rodd Cruikshank they've paired a local venue with an international menu.

Patrons rave about the quality of food, described as some of the best Mexican cuisine in Western Canada.

The taste and flavour has much to do with Fiesta Mexicana's commitment to prepare everything in house, from scratch.

It is because of this commitment to quality that Fiesta Mexicana was chosen to be featured this summer on the Food Network's TV show "You Gotta Eat Here" — one of only a handful of restaurants in all of Western Canada. Come see for yourself!
